How To Consign

We are pleased that you want to become a part of our boutique. Consignments are accepted by appointment. (If you have all ready consigned with us, "drop and run" is available with a filled out item list. You can upload your item list via our website). When you bring your items in, we will select what our customers will buy (please see list of the Brands We Love). Items for consignment should be in season, in current style, and in excellent condition. We ask that items be freshly laundered (or dry cleaned) and pressed. Our goal is to provide high quality items for our customers; this is the basis for our selection guidelines.

Pricing and Payment

Pricing is determined by Bellies & Babies which is typically 1/3 to 1/2 of the original retail price. You are paid for your items after they sell. For clothing items, your split percentage depends on the form of payment you select. When paid by check, you will receive 45% of the selling price. When paid in the form of store credit, you will receive 50% of the selling price. The selling price will be reduced at different time intervals up until the end of the consignment period. Bellies & Babies reserves the right to mark prices down at our discretion without prior notice to the consignor. A one dollar handling fee per item will be deducted from your payment (this does not apply to items that sell for $10 or less).

You may check the status of your account on the website. Consignor checks are mailed quarterly (typically at the end of each season). Please note, account balances under $25 will be applied as store credit only.

Consignment Period

Your items will be consigned for up to 90 days (a shorter period if items are consigned late in a season). Once the consignment period ends, consigned items become the property of Bellies & Babies and will donated to a local charity. If you wish to retrieve your unsold consigned items you must come pick up your items prior to the end of the 90 day consignment period.

We will do our best to safeguard your items, but Bellies & Babies is not responsible for loss or damage by handling, fire, theft, shoplifting, accident or any other cause.

I have read the above terms and agree with them.
